Ottawa, Ontarlo, Nov. 10.-At a largely attended meeting of the board of trade held recently, nearly fifty of the soundest business men of the city assembled to listen to Andrew Holland's address on the advisability of converting Ottawa into a national-owned, commission-governed city, a "Washington of the North," in accordance with the avowed intention of the Federal government, as expressed by Sir Wilfrid Laurier. As the scheme is a large one, and Mr. Holland declared it to be his intention to originate an educational campaign in this direction, the meeting adjourned to consider the matter at length, and to ascertain the temper of the business men of the city assembled to lislength, and to ascertain the temper of the Daws' Pharmacy, 22d and H sts. nw. length, and to ascertain the temper of the city before the next gathering.

A dozen gentlemen spoke on the question besides Mr. Holland, and the gathering appeared to be in favor of the idea, with possibly a little trouble over the question of disfranchising the citizens of the proposed "district," in view of the peculiar relations between the capital and peculiar relations between the capital and the scheme of the sch peculiar relations between the capital and the government in event of the scheme going through. A largely signed petition will be presented to the city council shortly by Mr. Holland.

In opening his address Mr. Holland was greeted with loud applause. He remarked that one Ottawa paper had said any citizen who bartered away his franchise for government "pap" was small potatoes; but in this case, Mr. Holland additional mitted he was one of the small potatoes.
